

Penfolds

Bin 138 Old Vine Red

1993

The 1993 Penfolds Old Vine Barossa Valley Shiraz - Grenache - Mourvedre is made from traditional Barossa Valley grape varieties and shows distinctive Australian character. Carefully selected fruit from very old, low yielding, bush vines were blended to produce a rich and complex wine that highlights the warming earthiness derived from the old vines.

Winemaker comments by Phillip John

COLOUR

A good depth of brick-red colour with crimson hues.

NOSE

The bouquet features youthful, raspberry jam and liquorice fruit characters with a hint of earthiness. These enticing varietal characters and traditional barrel maturation have resulted in some boiled fruitcake aromatic complexities.

PALATE

The flavour is rich and spicy, showing a wonderful rustic complexity owing to the blend of three varieties. The palate combines raspberry fruit flavours with plenty of chocolaty richness and some roasted coffee bean and tobacco characters, finishing with
