

Bin 28 Kalimna Shiraz

1978

A classic Australian Shiraz, named after Penfolds' Kalimna Vineyard in the Barossa Valley. It is a wine known internationally for its consistent quality, value for money and cellaring potential. Premium Shiraz grapes from the low yielding Kalimna Vineyard are selected, as well as Shiraz from other renowned South Australian wine districts to provide the full spectrum of varietal aromas and flavours, thereby adding complexity to the wine.

Winemaker comments by Penfolds Rewards of Patience, Edition VI

COLOUR
Brick red.

NOSE
Dark chocolate / herb garden / graphite aromas with some leather / smoky notes.

PALATE
Sweet, complex, dark chocolate / walnut / amontillado flavours and fine, slinky, firm tannins. Finishes grippy and tight. More power than charm, but still impressive for its age.
