

Bin 389 Cabernet Shiraz

1967

The Bin 389 style evolved as a result of experiments, by Max Schubert, in the 1950s to develop a highly individual wine using a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Shiraz with compatible oak treatment.

Bin 389 combines the elegance of Cabernet Sauvignon with the richness of Shiraz and demonstrates the traditional Penfolds' trademark - balance between fruit and oak, giving the wine character and longevity.

Winemaker comments by Penfolds Rewards of Patience, Edition VI

COLOUR

Brick red.

NOSE

Farmyard/leather/burnt chocolate/mint aromas.

PALATE

The wine has overdeveloped now. The palate is sinewy dry and firm with menthol/chocolate/tar/smoked meat flavours. Loses energy at the finish. It is fading now.
