

Bin 389 Cabernet Shiraz

1989

The Bin 389 style evolved as a result of experiments, by Max Schubert, in the 1950s to develop a highly individual wine using a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Shiraz with compatible oak treatment.

Bin 389 combines the elegance of Cabernet Sauvignon with the richness of Shiraz and demonstrates the traditional Penfolds' trademark - balance between fruit and oak, giving the wine character and longevity.

NOSE

PALATE

Lovely sweet, generous wine with plenty of chocolate/dark berry/leather flavours and fine, balanced tannins. Finishes savoury and long. Acidity pokes out towards the end. A very successful wine for vintage.
