

Bin 28 Kalimna Shiraz

1990

A classic Australian Shiraz, named after Penfolds' Kalimna Vineyard in the Barossa Valley. It is a wine known internationally for its consistent quality, value for money and cellaring potential. Premium Shiraz grapes from the low yielding Kalimna Vineyard are selected, as well as Shiraz from other renown South Australian wine districts to provide the full spectrum of varietal aromas and flavours, thereby adding complexity to the wine.

Deep red.

Intense and powerful choco-berry, cedar, liquorice aromas.

Well-concentrated choco-berry, redcurrant, meaty, liquorice flavours and ripe, dense, velvety tannins. Some demi-glace notes. Finishes long and sweet. A classic Penfolds vintage; living up to expectations.
