

Bin 389 Cabernet Shiraz

1995

Commonly referred to as 'poor man's Grange' due to the use of former Grange barrels in its maturation, and its age old reputation for value for money.

Bin 389 is a very traditional Australian blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Shiraz and today it is truly a multi regional blend drawing from as many as seven different regions depending on the vintage. Although quite different to Grange it is unmistakably Penfolds in style, with fleshy, ripe fruit flavours and charry oak.

COLOUR

Medium deep red.

NOSE

Intense blueberry, blackberry, cassis, dried herb, leather aromas with some musky, minty nuances.

PALATE

Plenty of cherry, blueberry, dried herb flavours, underlying tobacco, earthy notes and fine, grainy, textured tannins. Builds up quite brambly and dry at the finish.
