

Bin 389 Cabernet Shiraz

1966

The Bin 389 style evolved as a result of experiments, by Max Schubert, in the 1950s to develop a highly individual wine using a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Shiraz with compatible oak treatment.

Bin 389 combines the elegance of Cabernet Sauvignon with the richness of Shiraz and demonstrates the traditional Penfolds' trademark - balance between fruit and oak, giving the wine character and longevity.

COLOUR

Deep brick red.

NOSE

Beautiful old wine with fresh intense mocha-berry/sandalwood aromas.

PALATE

It's still holding up really well, showing plenty of richness, fruit sweetness, mocha/roasted coffee/herb garden flavours and fine chalky/savoury tannins. It finishes brambly, long and sweet. A delicious old wine.
