MAGILL ESTATE SHIRAZ

2013

"A solid Magill Estate Shiraz. Balanced, supple, well-proportioned." "The 31st consecutive release from this monopole."

PETER GAGO PENFOLDS CHIEF WINEMAKER

| OVERVIEW              | The single-vineyard Magill Estate SISourced from the original Magill vi(just eight kilometres from the city'son-site at the original Penfolds Mag1983, Magill Estate Shiraz is an elegfine tannins, matured in both Frencewine, yet crafted the original way: hbasket pressed to complete ferment |
|-----------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| GRAPE VARIETY         | 100% Shiraz                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| VINEYARD REGION       | Magill Estate                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| WINE ANALYSIS         | Alc/Vol: 14.4%, Acidity: 7.3 g/L, pF                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| MATURATION            | 14 months in French oak (71% new,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| VINTAGECONDITIONS | The Magill Estate vineyard experienvintage. Revitalising winter rain wasperiod. There were some warm daysthe vines under a certain amount ofmaintain healthy vineyard canopiescondition, picked on February 14th                                                                                          |
| COLOUR                | Bright mauve core. Dark.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| NOSE                  | The sweet: chocolate mousse, bruléeThe savoury: raw wet ham, corned bThe rest: fresh leather (wallet) and sginger, soy.                                                                                                                                                                      |
| PALATE                | Medium to full-bodied.Flavours akin to white sultana cake,Balanced oak, and a perception of sAmerican?Long and persistent, propelled by fiDistinctive and unique. Quite elega                                                                                                                             |
| PEAK DRINKING         | 2016 - 2030                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| LAST TASTED           | July 2015                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |

| Penfolds.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| Magill Estate2013 SHIRAZ                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |  |
| I Might Estate consequent and reinary is the operated boostfills This single consequely some because a tray boots toconting million. It was als Might that Taiphile one particle(Interpolar Stanson Prophile in 1886, White Home booksof the stray constant and fillutes to some of Prophile constantof an illungie left operate and formation in the single con-dense illungie left operate and formation in the single con-dense illungie left operate and formation in the single con-dense illungie left operate and formation in the single Constitution. |  |
| SUTTLE ADALII3Stor sutters                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |  |

Shiraz is intrinsically linked to Penfolds beginnings. vineyard on the edge of Adelaide's eastern suburbs v's CBD), fruit is crushed, fermented and matured gill winery, established in 1844. First produced in gant, medium-weight style with velvety texture and hch and American oak. It is a sleek, contemporary hand-picked, vinified in open fermenters and then tation in barrel.

H: 3.60

v, 5% 1-y.o) and American oak hogsheads (24% new) enced almost perfect conditions during the 2013 as followed by a dry, disease free spring and summer ys around Christmas and in early January which put of stress, however full soil moisture profiles helped s throughout vintage. Fruit was harvested in pristine and 15th 2013.

ed custard, blackberry. beef, freshly cooked silverside, green olive. spice notes - nutmeg/cinnamon (from oak?),

, dates...and a touch of freshly tanned suede. spice from French oak, with a creaminess from the fine mouth-coating tannins and tempered acidity. ant.