

Bin 389 Cabernet Shiraz

1975

The Bin 389 style evolved as a result of experiments, by Max Schubert, in the 1950s to develop a highly individual wine using a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Shiraz with compatible oak treatment.

Bin 389 combines the elegance of Cabernet Sauvignon with the richness of Shiraz and demonstrates the traditional Penfolds' trademark - balance between fruit and oak, giving the wine character and longevity.

Winemaker comments by Penfolds Rewards of Patience, Edition VI

COLOUR
Brick red.

NOSE
Mature redcurrant/earthy/herb garden aromas with some malty/sandalwood notes.

PALATE
The palate is fully mature with brambly/chocolate/redcurrant/cedar flavours and chalky, dry, slightly grainy, firm tannins. It still has flow, flavour and balance. A beautiful marriage of cabernet and shiraz.
